

Mad Libs about sports

Mad Lib #1: Soccer

One sunny day, I went to play soccer with my _____ (adjective) friends. We ran onto the field with our _____ (adjective) soccer ball and started to _____ (verb) the ball around. Suddenly, the other team kicked the ball towards our goal, but our goalie _____ (verb) and stopped the ball! We were so _____ (adjective) and cheered loudly. I love playing soccer with my friends!

Mad Lib #2: Basketball

Last weekend, my family and I went to watch a basketball game. The players were so _____ (adjective) and tall! They dribbled the ball down the court and shot it into the hoop. Every time a player scored, the crowd cheered and clapped _____ (adverb). At halftime, we bought some popcorn and watched the cheerleaders do their _____ (adjective) routine. It was so much fun!

Mad Lib #3: Baseball

Today, our class went on a field trip to watch a baseball game. We sat in the stands and ate _____ (noun) and hot dogs. The players wore _____ (color) uniforms and swung their bats to hit the ball. Every time someone caught the ball, the crowd shouted _____ (exclamation)! At the end of the game, our team won and we all _____ (verb) and high-fived each other. What a great day!
