

Mad Libs about sports

Mad Lib 1: Basketball Game

Yesterday, I went to see a basketball game at the _____ (noun) with my friends. We got there early and bought some _____ (adjective) popcorn and soda to share. The players came out and started _____ (verb) the ball back and forth. They were all very _____ (adjective) and tall!

My favorite part of the game was when one of the players did a _____ (adjective) dunk and the crowd went _____ (adverb). I couldn't believe how _____ (adjective) it was! In the end, our team won by _____ (number) points. It was a great game!

Mad Lib 2: Soccer Game

Last weekend, my soccer team played a game against the _____ (adjective) team in the league. We had to wear our _____ (color) jerseys and shorts to match. The game was held at a _____ (noun), and the field was very _____ (adjective) and green.

During the game, I played _____ (adverb) and tried to _____ (verb) the ball to my teammates. We scored _____ (number) goals, and the crowd cheered _____ (adjective) for us. After the game, we celebrated with some _____ (food) and drinks. It was a great day!

Mad Lib 3: Swimming Race

Yesterday, I had a swimming race at the _____ (adjective) pool in town. I was feeling _____ (adjective) and nervous before the race started. I wore my _____ (color) swimsuit and goggles to help me see underwater.

When the race started, I had to swim _____ (adverb) to keep up with the other swimmers. The water was very _____ (adjective) and cold, but I didn't mind because I was having fun. I swam _____ (number) laps and finished the race in _____ (number) seconds. I was so _____ (adjective) and proud of myself!